Implementation Rules for Article 43 of the Law of the People's Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

(Made by the Chief Executive in conjunction with the Committee for Safeguarding National Security of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region under the third paragraph of Article 43 of the Law of the People's Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong
Special Administrative Region)

Preamble

WHEREAS—

- (1) at its Twentieth Meeting on 30 June 2020, the Standing Committee of the Thirteenth National People's Congress, after consulting the Committee for the Basic Law of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region and the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, decided to add the Law of the People's Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (a translation of “《中華人民共和國香港特別行政區維護國家安全法》”) to the list of national laws in Annex III to the Basic Law of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China;

- (b) a police officer reasonably believes that the person falls within one or more of the following descriptions—
 - (i) the person owns, possesses or controls the electronic equipment;
 - (ii) the person is authorized to access the equipment;
 - (iii) the person is using or has used the equipment;
 - (iv) the person knows of the password or decryption method.

(L.N. 27 of 2026)

5. Offence of failing to comply with requirement to provide password etc.

- (1) If a person fails to comply with a requirement imposed under section 4(2) of this Schedule, the person commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $100,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.
- (2) A person is not excused from complying with the requirement on the ground that to do so—
 - (a) might tend to incriminate the person; or
 - (b) would breach—
 - (i) an obligation as to secrecy; or
 - (ii) any other restriction on the disclosure of information,that is imposed by statute or otherwise.
- (3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) to establish that the person had a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the requirement.

Section 6

Instrument A303

- (4) A defendant is taken to have established that the defendant had a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the requirement if—
- (a) sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue that the defendant had such a reasonable excuse; and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved by the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt.

(L.N. 27 of 2026)

6. Offence of making false statement etc.

If a person, in purported compliance with a requirement imposed under section 4(2) of this Schedule—

- (a) provides any information, or makes a statement, that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
- (b) recklessly provides any information, or recklessly makes a statement, that is false or misleading in a material particular, the person commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $500,000 and to imprisonment for 3 years.

7. Limitations on use of incriminating passwords etc. as evidence in proceedings

- (1) If a police officer, under section 4(2) of this Schedule, requires a specified person to provide any password or other decryption method, or to provide any information, the police officer must ensure that the specified person has first been informed or reminded of the effect of subsection (2).

- (2) Despite any other provision of these Implementation Rules, if—
- (a) a specified person provides a police officer with any password or other decryption method, or with any information, for compliance with a requirement imposed by the police officer under section 4(2) of this Schedule;
 - (b) the matter mentioned in paragraph (a) might tend to incriminate the specified person; and
 - (c) the specified person claims, before so providing the password, decryption method or information, that the matter mentioned in paragraph (a) might tend to incriminate the specified person,
- the requirement and the matter mentioned in paragraph (a) are not admissible in evidence against the specified person in criminal proceedings in a court of law.
- (3) The criminal proceedings mentioned in subsection (2) do not include criminal proceedings in which the specified person is charged with—
- (a) an offence under section 5(1) or 6 of this Schedule; or
 - (b) an offence under Part V of the Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 200).
- (4) To avoid doubt, the limitations by subsection (2) on the admissibility in evidence do not apply to any material that is obtained by virtue of a requirement imposed under section 4(2) of this Schedule.

Part 2

Claims of Legal Professional Privilege

(Part 2 added L.N. 27 of 2026)

8. Interpretation (Part 2)

In this Part—

claimant (聲請人), in relation to an LPP claim, means the person who makes the claim;

Court (法庭) means the Court of First Instance of the High Court;

formal-claim material (正式聲請材料), in relation to an LPP claim, means any material specified under section 12(1)(a) of this Schedule in respect of the claim;

list of disputed material (受爭議材料列表) has the meaning given by section 12(4) of this Schedule;

LPP claim (法律專業保密權聲請) means a claim made to the Court that particular material is subject to legal professional privilege;

preliminary-claim material (初步聲請材料), in relation to an LPP claim, means any material specified under section 10(2) of this Schedule in respect of the claim;

respondent (答辯人) means the Commissioner of Police.

9. Application of this Part etc.

- (1) An LPP claim in respect of any material is to be dealt with in accordance with this Part if the material is seized, removed or detained (whether seized, removed or detained under Part 1 of this Schedule) by a police officer for investigation of an offence endangering national security.

Region

Schedule 1—Part 2

S1-18

Section 10

Instrument A303

- (2) However, this Part does not apply to an LPP claim if the claimant and the respondent of the claim agree that this Part does not so apply.
- (3) The Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A) apply to proceedings conducted under this Part to the extent that those Rules are not inconsistent with this Part.

10. Making of LPP claims

- (1) The LPP claim concerned must be made by originating summons (in Form No. 10 in Appendix A to the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A)) and be supported by affidavit.
- (2) The affidavit must specify which material is claimed by the claimant to be subject to legal professional privilege.
- (3) The claimant must serve a copy of the originating summons and affidavit on—
 - (a) the respondent; and
 - (b) the Secretary for Justice.

11. Unsealing of material, and making of copies, by respondent

- (1) After receiving the copy of the originating summons and affidavit served under section 10(3) of this Schedule, the respondent must—
 - (a) ensure, as soon as reasonably practicable, that the preliminary-claim material concerned has been sealed; and
 - (b) give the claimant a written notice specifying for the purposes of this section—

- (i) one or more places (that place or each of those places being a specified place); and
 - (ii) one or more dates (that date or each of those dates being a specified date) and one or more periods (that period or each of those periods being a specified period).
 - (2) Unless the claimant and the respondent agree otherwise, the notice must be given not less than 7 days before a specified date.
 - (3) The respondent or a representative of the respondent must, at a specified place and during a specified period on a specified date, unseal the preliminary-claim material to make, in the manner the respondent or the representative considers appropriate and so far as is reasonably practicable, copies of the preliminary-claim material, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
 - (4) If any of the preliminary-claim material (digital material) is stored in, or is accessible by means of, electronic equipment, then for the purposes of subsection (3)—
 - (a) the respondent or a representative of the respondent may, by one or both of the following means, make copies of the digital material—
 - (i) store the copies of the digital material in blank storage devices;
 - (ii) take any photograph or video of the digital material after reproducing it in a visible and legible form by electronic means; and
 - (b) the respondent or a representative of the respondent, if unable to make copies of the digital material (including being unable to make such copies because the equipment or digital material is encrypted), may attempt to make copies of the digital material with any password, decryption method, information or assistance provided by the claimant for compliance with any requirement imposed under section 14(2) of this Schedule.

- (5) If the respondent or a representative of the respondent has made copies of all the preliminary-claim material (other than the inaccessible material) in accordance with subsection (3), the respondent or that representative must—
- (a) give at least one of the copies to the claimant or a representative of the claimant; and
 - (b) give the claimant a notice stating that the respondent or that representative of the respondent has complied with the requirement in paragraph (a).

- (6) In this section—

inaccessible material (無法取覽材料) means any digital material of which the respondent or a representative of the respondent is unable to make copies after the attempt mentioned in subsection (4)(b).

12. Identification of disputed parts in claims

- (1) The claimant of the LPP claim concerned must, within 14 days after the date on which the notice mentioned in section 11(5)(b) of this Schedule is given, file with the Court and serve on the respondent a list (list for formal claim)—
- (a) specifying which specific material in the preliminary-claim material is claimed to be subject to legal professional privilege;
 - (b) setting out, so far as is reasonably practicable, the particulars of the formal-claim material, including—

- (i) the date, title, subject, author, recipient and purpose; and
 - (ii) in relation to any formal-claim material that is stored in electronic equipment—the hash value, file name, file type and file path;
 - (c) stating the nature of the formal-claim material;
 - (d) stating whether the legal professional privilege that the claimant claims the formal-claim material is subject to is legal advice privilege or litigation privilege; and
 - (e) stating the reasons for which the claimant claims that the formal-claim material is subject to legal professional privilege.
- (2) If the whole of particular preliminary-claim material is not formal-claim material, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may unseal the preliminary-claim material and any copy of it, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
- (3) If any part of particular preliminary-claim material is not formal-claim material, section 19 of this Schedule applies to the preliminary-claim material.
- (4) If the respondent disputes whether particular formal-claim material is subject to legal professional privilege as specified in the list for formal claim, the respondent may, within 14 days after the date of service of the list in accordance with subsection (1), file with the Court and serve on the claimant a list (list of disputed material) specifying which specific material in the formal-claim material the respondent so disputes.
- (5) Despite subsection (1) or (4)—

- (a) the claimant and the respondent may agree to extend the period mentioned in that subsection; and
- (b) the Court may, in accordance with section 15 of this Schedule and on application by the claimant or respondent, extend the period for one or more times.

13. Affidavit evidence and written submissions in case of dispute

- (1) If a list of disputed material is filed and served in respect of the LPP claim concerned in accordance with section 12(4) of this Schedule, the claimant must, within 14 days after the date of the service, file with the Court and serve on the respondent affidavit evidence and written submissions in support of the claim that the material specified in the list is subject to legal professional privilege.
- (2) The respondent must, within 14 days after the date of service of the affidavit evidence and written submissions under subsection (1), file with the Court and serve on the claimant affidavit evidence and written submissions stating the grounds on which the respondent opposes that the material is subject to legal professional privilege.
- (3) The claimant may, within 7 days after the date of service of the affidavit evidence and written submissions under subsection (2), file with the Court and serve on the respondent further affidavit evidence and written submissions in reply to the affidavit evidence and written submissions served by the respondent under that subsection.
- (4) The Court, if it considers appropriate—
 - (a) may inspect the material; and
 - (b) may direct the respondent to inspect the material.
- (5) Despite subsection (1), (2) or (3)—

- (a) the claimant and the respondent may agree to extend the period mentioned in that subsection; and
- (b) the Court may, in accordance with section 15 of this Schedule and on application by the claimant or respondent, extend the period for one or more times.

14. Duty of claimant to provide passwords etc.

- (1) This section applies—
 - (a) in the case of section 11(4)(b) of this Schedule; or
 - (b) in the case where the Court gives a direction under section 13(4) of this Schedule and the material concerned is stored in, or is accessible by means of, electronic equipment.
- (2) The respondent or a representative of the respondent may, for ensuring that the making of copies mentioned in section 11(4)(b) of this Schedule or the inspection mentioned in section 13(4) of this Schedule (as applicable) can be carried out, require the claimant to, within the time specified by the respondent or that representative, take one or both of the following actions—
 - (a) provide the respondent with any password, or other decryption method, that is necessary;
 - (b) provide the respondent with any other reasonable and necessary information or assistance.
- (3) If the respondent or a representative of the respondent is unable to, with any password, decryption method, information or assistance provided by the claimant for compliance with any requirement imposed under subsection (2), ensure that the making of copies mentioned in section 11(4)(b) of this Schedule or the inspection mentioned in section 13(4) of this

Schedule (as applicable) can be carried out, the respondent or that representative, after obtaining the consent of the claimant, may in the absence of the claimant (including a representative of the claimant) unseal the material concerned (including unsealing the equipment concerned) and attempt to take one or both of the following actions by employing any technology that the respondent or a representative of the respondent considers appropriate—

- (a) access the equipment;
 - (b) decrypt any material that is stored in, or that is accessible by means of, the equipment.
- (4) If the respondent or a representative of the respondent successfully decrypts any material under subsection (3) (successfully accessed material)—
- (a) sections 11(1)(b), (2), (3) and (4)(a) and 12 of this Schedule apply to the successfully accessed material as if a reference in those provisions to preliminary-claim material were a reference to successfully accessed material; and
 - (b) section 11(5) of this Schedule applies to the successfully accessed material as if a reference in that section to copies of all the preliminary-claim material (other than the inaccessible material) were a reference to copies of the successfully accessed material.

15. Applications for extension of periods

- (1) An application made under section 12(5)(b) or 13(5)(b) of this Schedule must be made by summons before the expiry of the period of which an extension is sought under the application.

- (2) The party that makes the application (applicant) must, at the time when the application is made—
 - (a) file with the Court—
 - (i) the summons; and
 - (ii) affidavit evidence and written submissions (if any) in support of the application; and
 - (b) serve on the other party (responding party) a copy of the documents mentioned in paragraph (a).
 - (3) The responding party may, within 7 days after the date of service of the affidavit evidence and written submissions under subsection (2), file with the Court and serve on the applicant affidavit evidence and written submissions (if any) stating the grounds on which the responding party opposes the application.
 - (4) The Court must determine the application without an oral hearing unless the Court considers it necessary to conduct an oral hearing of the application.
 - (5) The Court must not grant the application unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to do so.

16. Court's determination of disputes

- (1) The Court must determine the LPP claim concerned without an oral hearing unless the Court considers it necessary to conduct an oral hearing of the claim.
- (2) If the Court determines under subsection (1) that the whole of particular formal-claim material is not subject to legal professional privilege, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may unseal the material and any copy of it, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.

- (3) If the Court determines under subsection (1) that any part of particular formal-claim material is not subject to legal professional privilege, section 19 of this Schedule applies to the material.

17. Claims treated as withdrawn on non-compliance with requirements

- (1) If the claimant fails to comply with a requirement in section 12(1) of this Schedule—
- (a) the LPP claim concerned is to be treated as withdrawn; and
 - (b) accordingly, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may unseal all the preliminary-claim material and any copy of the material, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
- (2) If the claimant fails to comply with a requirement in section 13(1) of this Schedule in respect of any material specified in the list of disputed material—
- (a) the LPP claim concerned is to be treated as withdrawn to the extent that it relates to the material; and
 - (b) accordingly, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may unseal the material and any copy of it, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
- (3) If the claimant fails to comply with a requirement made under section 14(2) of this Schedule, or refuses to give the consent

mentioned in section 14(3) of this Schedule, in respect of any preliminary-claim material or formal-claim material—

- (a) the LPP claim concerned is to be treated as withdrawn to the extent that it relates to the material; and
 - (b) accordingly, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may unseal the material and any copy of it, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
- (4) If the LPP claim concerned is treated as withdrawn under subsection (1), (2) or (3), the respondent must give the claimant and file with the Court a written notice stating this fact.
- (5) For the purposes of this section—
- (a) if the requirement mentioned in subsection (1) is modified by section 12(5) of this Schedule, the reference in that subsection to that requirement is to be understood as a reference to that requirement as so modified; and
 - (b) if the requirement mentioned in subsection (2) is modified by section 13(5) of this Schedule, the reference in that subsection to that requirement is to be understood as a reference to that requirement as so modified.

18. Applications for restoration of claims that are treated as withdrawn

- (1) If the LPP claim concerned is treated as withdrawn (or withdrawn to a certain extent) under section 17 of this Schedule, the claimant may apply to the Court for restoration of the claim (or restoration of the claim to that extent) (restoration application).

- (2) A restoration application must be made by summons and be supported by affidavit.
 - (3) The Court must not grant a restoration application unless it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the claimant has exercised due diligence to comply with the requirement that the claimant has failed to comply with as mentioned in section 17 of this Schedule;
 - (b) the claimant has failed to comply with the requirement for reasons beyond the control of the claimant; and
 - (c) in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to grant the application.
 - (4) If the Court grants a restoration application under subsection (3), it must give directions to make necessary modifications to the requirements in this Part in respect of the LPP claim.
 - (5) The Court must be satisfied that a direction given under subsection (4) is reasonable and necessary and would not be contrary to the interests of national security.

19. Procedures for lifting restrictions on part of material

- (1) For the purposes of section 12(3) or 16(3) of this Schedule, the respondent must give the claimant a written notice specifying for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) one or more places (that place or each of those places being a specified place); and
 - (b) one or more dates (that date or each of those dates being a specified date) and one or more periods (that period or each of those periods being a specified period).

[r. 2]

Rules Relating to Restriction on Persons under Investigation from Leaving Hong Kong

1. Interpretation

In this Schedule—

travel document (旅行證件) means a passport or other document establishing the identity or nationality of a holder.

2. Surrender of travel documents

- (1) A magistrate may, on the application ex parte of a police officer, by written notice require a person who is the subject of an investigation in respect of an offence endangering national security reasonably suspected to have been committed by the person to surrender to the police officer any travel document in the person's possession.
- (2) A notice issued to a person (investigated person) under subsection (1) must be served personally on the investigated person. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (3) An investigated person must comply with a notice issued to him or her under subsection (1) immediately. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (4) An investigated person must not leave Hong Kong, whether or not a notice has been served on the person under subsection (2), before the expiry of a period of 6 months from the date of the notice (or that period as extended (or further extended) under subsection (8)) unless— (L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (a) an application made under section 3(1) of this Schedule for the return of a travel document is granted; or
 - (b) an application made under section 4(1) of this Schedule for permission to leave Hong Kong is granted.
- (5) If an investigated person knowingly contravenes subsection (3) or (4), the person commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $100,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (6) (Repealed L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (7) A travel document surrendered to a police officer in compliance with a notice under subsection (1) may be detained for a period of 6 months from the date of the notice (or that period as extended (or further extended) under subsection (8)) unless an application made under section 3(1) of this Schedule for the return of the travel document is granted. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (8) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (7), the period of 6 months referred to in those provisions may be extended (or further extended), with each period of extension being 3 months, if a magistrate, on application by the police officer, is satisfied that the investigation could not reasonably have been completed before the date of such application and authorizes such extension. However, a magistrate must not hear an application under this subsection unless reasonable notice of the application has been given by the police officer to the investigated person concerned. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (9) Proceedings before a magistrate under this section must be conducted in chambers. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (10) A notice under subsection (1) which has been served in accordance with subsection (2) and complied with must not be revoked or withdrawn.

3. Return of travel documents

- (1) A person who has surrendered a travel document under section 2 of this Schedule may at any time make application in writing, either to the Commissioner of Police or to a magistrate or both for its return, and every such application must contain a statement of the grounds on which it is made.
- (2) A magistrate must not consider an application made under subsection (1) unless the magistrate is satisfied that reasonable notice in writing of it has been given to the Commissioner of Police.
- (3) The Commissioner of Police or a magistrate may only grant an application made under subsection (1) if the Commissioner of Police or the magistrate (as the case may be), having regard to all the circumstances, including the interests of the investigation referred to in section 2(1) of this Schedule, is satisfied that— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (a) a refusal to grant the application would cause unreasonable hardship to the applicant; and
 - (b) it would not be contrary to the interests of national security to grant the application. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (4) Before an application is granted under this section—
- (a) the applicant may be required to—
 - (i) deposit such reasonable sum of money with such person as may be specified;
 - (ii) enter into such recognizance with such sureties, if any, as may be specified; or

2. Property to which this Schedule applies

This Schedule applies to property whether it is situated in Hong Kong or elsewhere.

3. Freezing of property

- (1) Where the Secretary for Security has reasonable grounds to suspect that any property held by any person is offence related property, the Secretary may, by notice in writing specifying the property, direct that a person must not, directly or indirectly, deal with the property except under the authority of a licence granted by the Secretary.
- (2) If the Secretary for Security ceases to have reasonable grounds to suspect that the property specified in the notice, or part of the property, is offence related property, or the Court of First Instance has granted an application under section 4(1A) of this Schedule which relates to the property or part of the property, then the Secretary must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, by notice in writing revoke the notice or a relevant part of it. (L.N. 166 of 2023)

Editorial Note:

* The amending Rules (L.N. 166 of 2023) came into operation on 15 December 2023.

4. Applications to Court of First Instance

- (1) Where a notice has been served under section 3 of this Schedule, then—
- (a) any person who holds any property specified in the notice;
 - (b) any person for or on behalf of whom the property is held; or
 - (c) any other person in respect of whom the Court of First Instance is satisfied that the person is affected by the notice,
- may make an application to the Court of First Instance for the notice to be revoked to the extent that it relates to the property so specified. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (1A) Where an application is made under subsection (1)—
- (a) if the Court of First Instance is not satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the property is offence related property—the Court of First Instance must grant the application; or

- (b) if the Court of First Instance is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the property is offence related property—the Court of First Instance must not grant the application unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to do so. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (2) Any person affected by a notice served under section 3 of this Schedule (including a person affected by the operation of that section) may make an application to the Court of First Instance for the grant or variation of a licence mentioned in section 3(1) of this Schedule, or the revocation or variation of a direction mentioned in section 3(7) of this Schedule. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (2A) The Court of First Instance must not grant an application under subsection (2) unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to do so. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (3) A person who makes an application under subsection (1) or (2) must give notice of the application to the Secretary for Justice and any other person affected in accordance with the rules of court that are applicable under section 15 of this Schedule.
- (4) The Secretary for Security must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, cause a determination made by the Court of First Instance under this section to be implemented.

5. Disclosure of knowledge or suspicion that property is offence related property etc.

Section 5

Instrument A303

- (1) Where a person knows or suspects that any property is offence related property, then the person must disclose to a police officer the information or other matter—
 - (a) on which the knowledge or suspicion is based; and
 - (b) as soon as is reasonably practicable after that information or other matter comes to the person's attention.
 - (2) If a person who has made a disclosure referred to in subsection (1) does any act relating to financing or assisting the commission of an offence endangering national security, and the disclosure relates to that act, the person does not commit that offence if the condition specified in paragraph (a) or (b) is satisfied—
 - (a) the disclosure is made before the person does the act and the person does the act with the consent of a police officer;
 - (b) the disclosure is made—
 - (i) after the person does the act;
 - (ii) on the person's initiative; and
 - (iii) as soon as it is reasonably practicable for the person to make the disclosure.
 - (3) In the case of a person who was in employment at the relevant time, this section has effect in relation to disclosures to the appropriate person in accordance with the procedure established by the person's employer for the making of such disclosures as it has effect in relation to disclosures to a police officer.
 - (4) Where a person knows or suspects that a disclosure has been made under subsection (1) or (3), the person must not disclose to another person any information or other matter which is likely to prejudice any investigation which might be conducted following that first-mentioned disclosure.

- (5) Information obtained under or by virtue of a disclosure referred to in subsection (1) may be disclosed—
 - (a) by any police officer to the Department of Justice and other police officers for the purpose of preventing and suppressing acts or activities endangering national security; and
 - (b) by any police officer to the authorities or persons responsible for investigating or preventing acts or activities endangering national security, or handling the disclosure of knowledge or suspicion that any property is offence related property, of any place outside Hong Kong which the police officer considers appropriate, for the purpose of preventing and suppressing acts or activities endangering national security.
- (6) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of $50,000 and to imprisonment for 3 months.
- (7) A person who contravenes subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for 3 years.
- (8) In proceedings against a person for an offence under subsection (7), it is a defence to prove—
 - (a) that the person did not know or suspect that the disclosure concerned was likely to be prejudicial in the way referred to in subsection (4); or
 - (b) that the person had lawful authority or reasonable excuse for making that disclosure.

6. Applications for restraint orders and charging orders

(1) The Court of First Instance may, after an application is made by the Secretary for Justice, make a restraint order or charging order if the following conditions are satisfied—
(L.N. 27 of 2026)

(a) any of the following circumstances is present—

- (i) proceedings have been instituted against the defendant for an offence endangering national security, or an application under section 9 of this Schedule for a confiscation order to be made against the defendant or an application under section 10 of this Schedule for variation of a confiscation order has been made, and the proceedings have not, or the application has not, been concluded; (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (ii) a person (defendant) has been arrested for an offence endangering national security, and the Court of First Instance is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, there is reasonable ground to believe that the defendant may be charged with the offence after further investigation is carried out;
- (iii) the Court of First Instance is satisfied that a person (defendant) is to be charged with an offence endangering national security; and

(b) the Court of First Instance is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe—

- (i) if an application for variation of a confiscation order has been made—that the Court of First

Instance will be satisfied of the matters specified in section 10(2) of this Schedule; or

- (ii) in any other case—that the defendant has benefited from that offence.
- (2) A restraint order or charging order—
 - (a) may be made on an ex parte application to the Court of First Instance in chambers; and
 - (b) must provide for notice to be given to persons affected by the order. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (3) An application for the discharge or variation of a restraint order or charging order may be made by any person affected by it to the Court of First Instance. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (3A) The Court of First Instance must not grant an application under subsection (3) unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to do so. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (4) A police officer may, by notice in writing served on a person who holds any realisable property the subject of a restraint order or charging order, require the person to deliver to the police officer, to the extent that it is reasonably practicable to do so, documents, or copies of documents, or any other information (in whatever form), in the person's possession or control which may assist the police officer to determine the value of the property.
- (5) A person who receives a notice under subsection (4) must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after receipt of the notice, comply with the notice to the extent that it is reasonably practicable to do so taking into account the nature of the realisable property concerned.

Section 7

Instrument A303

- (6) Any person who contravenes subsection (5) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of $50,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.
- (7) A person who knowingly deals in any realisable property in contravention of a restraint order or charging order commits an offence.
- (8) A person who commits an offence under subsection (7) is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $500,000 or to the value of the realisable property the subject of the restraint order or charging order concerned which has been dealt with in contravention of that order, whichever is the greater, and to imprisonment for 5 years.

7. Restraint orders

- (1) The Court of First Instance may by a restraint order prohibit any person from dealing with any realisable property, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified in the order.
- (2) A restraint order may apply to all realisable property held by a person specified in the order, whether the property is described in the order or not, or is transferred to the person after the making of the order.
- (3) Where the Court of First Instance has made a restraint order, the Court of First Instance may at any time appoint a receiver—
 - (a) to take possession of any realisable property; and
 - (b) in accordance with the directions of the Court of First Instance, to manage or otherwise deal with any property in respect of which the receiver is appointed, subject to such conditions and exceptions as may be specified by the Court of First Instance; and may require any person having possession of the property to give possession of it to the receiver.

- (4) Where the Court of First Instance has made a restraint order, a police officer may, for the purpose of preventing any realisable property being removed from Hong Kong, seize the property. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (5) Where a restraint order concerns immovable property—
 - (a) for property that is registered under the Land Titles Ordinance (Cap. 585)—the order and the subject matter to which the order relates are registrable under that Ordinance in the way that the Land Registrar considers appropriate; or
 - (b) for any other property—the order is taken to be an instrument affecting land for the purposes of the Land Registration Ordinance (Cap. 128) and is registrable as such under that Ordinance in the way that the Land Registrar considers appropriate. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

8. Charging orders in respect of land, securities, etc.

- (1) The Court of First Instance may make a charging order on realisable property for securing the payment to the Government—
 - (a) where a confiscation order has not been made—of an amount equal to the value from time to time of the property charged; and
 - (b) in any other case—of an amount not exceeding the amount payable under the confiscation order.

Section 8

Instrument A303

- (2) A charging order is an order made under this section imposing on any realisable property that is specified in the order a charge for securing the payment of money to the Government.
- (3) A charge may be imposed by a charging order only on—
- (a) any interest in realisable property, being an interest held beneficially by the defendant or by a person to whom the defendant has directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Schedule—
 - (i) in any asset of a kind specified in subsection (4); or
 - (ii) under any trust; or
 - (b) any interest in realisable property held by a person as trustee of a trust if the interest is in such an asset or is an interest under another trust and a charge may by virtue of paragraph (a) be imposed by a charging order on the whole beneficial interest under the first-mentioned trust.
- (3A) Section 12(9) of the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455) (section 12(9)) applies to the construction of the reference in subsection (3)(a) to “gift caught by this Schedule” as section 12(9) applies to the construction of a reference in that Ordinance to “gift caught by this Ordinance”, and for that purpose, section 12(9) is subject to the following modifications—
- (a) a reference in section 12(9) to “specified offence” or “organized crime” is a reference to “offence endangering national security”;
 - (b) a reference in section 12(9) to “this Ordinance” is a reference to “this Schedule”;

- (c) a reference in section 12(9) to “defendant” has the meaning given by section 1(1) of this Schedule; and
 - (d) a reference in section 12(9) to proceedings being instituted against a person is to be construed in accordance with section 1(2) of this Schedule. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (4) The kind of asset mentioned in subsection (3)(a)(i) is any of the following—
 - (a) land in Hong Kong;
 - (b) Government stock;
 - (c) stock of any body incorporated in Hong Kong;
 - (d) stock of any body incorporated outside Hong Kong or of any state or territory outside Hong Kong, being stock registered in a register kept at any place within Hong Kong;
 - (e) units of any unit trust in respect of which a register of the unit holders is kept at any place within Hong Kong.
- (5) The Court of First Instance may provide for the charge to extend to any interest, dividend or other distribution payable and any bonus issue in respect of the asset concerned.
- (6) A charging order is registrable and enforceable in accordance with the law of Hong Kong. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

9. Confiscation orders

- (1) The Secretary for Justice may make an application to the Court of First Instance or the District Court for a confiscation order if— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (a) in proceedings before the Court of First Instance or the District Court a defendant is to be sentenced in respect

- of an offence endangering national security and has not previously been sentenced in respect of the defendant's conviction for the offence concerned; or
- (b) proceedings for an offence endangering national security have been instituted against a defendant but have not been concluded because the defendant has died or absconded.
- (2) Where subsection (1)(a) is applicable, the court must first impose on the defendant such period of imprisonment or detention (if any) as is appropriate and make such order or orders (other than a confiscation order) in relation to sentence as is appropriate in accordance with the law of Hong Kong. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (3) Where subsection (1)(b) is applicable, the court must first be satisfied that—
- (a) the defendant has died; or
- (b) the defendant has absconded for not less than 6 months, and—
- (i) if the exact whereabouts of the defendant are known—reasonable steps have been taken to give notice to that defendant and to obtain the return of that defendant to Hong Kong but have been unsuccessful; or
- (ii) if the exact whereabouts of the defendant are not known—reasonable steps have been taken to ascertain the defendant's whereabouts and notice of those proceedings, addressed to that defendant, has been published in a Chinese language newspaper, and an English language newspaper, circulating generally in Hong Kong, and the court, having regard to all relevant matters before it, is also satisfied that the defendant could have been convicted in respect of the offence concerned.

- (4) The court must then determine whether the defendant has benefited from the offence endangering national security of which the defendant is convicted or could have been convicted.
- (5) If the court determines that the defendant has benefited from the offence endangering national security of which the defendant is convicted or could have been convicted, the court must determine the amount to be recovered in the defendant's case by virtue of this section. The amount to be recovered is the amount the court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds arising from the offence endangering national security which the defendant has committed, but if the court is satisfied that the amount that might be realized at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the court assesses to be such value, the court may determine the amount to be recovered to be— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (a) the amount appearing to the court to be so realized; or
 - (b) if it appears to the court (on the information available to it at the time) that the amount that might be so realized is nil—a nominal amount.
- (6) After determining the amount to be recovered, the court must then make a confiscation order, ordering the defendant to pay that amount within a fixed period.
- (7) The court must not fix a period longer than 6 months unless it is satisfied that there are special circumstances which justify it doing so.

imprisonment fixed under this section for the Commissioner to carry into effect the term of imprisonment fixed under this section in respect of that defendant.

- (10) The Secretary for Justice or the defendant may, in respect of an application for confiscation order, tender to the court a statement of matters relevant to the application. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (11) The amount to be recovered under a confiscation order is to be treated as a judgment debt under the law of Hong Kong, and as such, interest may accrue, and the amount of the interest is to be treated, for the purposes of enforcement, as part of the amount to be recovered from the defendant under the confiscation order. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

10. Variation of confiscation orders

- (1) The Secretary for Justice or the defendant (or, in the case of a defendant who has died, the defendant's personal representative) may make an application for variation in respect of a confiscation order. If the Court of First Instance is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the confiscation order, it must make an order that such lesser amount as the court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case be substituted, and that a shorter term fixed in accordance with section 9(8) of this Schedule be substituted.
- (2) The Secretary for Justice may make an application for variation in respect of a confiscation order. If the Court of First Instance is satisfied that— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (a) the value of the defendant's proceeds arising from any offence endangering national security was greater than the value of the defendant's proceeds arising from the offence assessed by the Court of First Instance or the District Court, as the case may be, at the time of the making of the confiscation order;

- (b) the Secretary for Justice becomes aware of realisable property, the existence of which was not known to the Secretary for Justice at the time of the making of the confiscation order; or
- (c) the amount realized from the defendant's proceeds arising from that offence is greater than the amount the Court of First Instance or the District Court, as the case may be, assessed to be the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order, the court must make an order that such greater amount as the court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case be substituted, and that a greater term fixed in accordance with section 9(8) of this Schedule be substituted.

11. Realisation of property and application

- (1) For the purposes of enforcing any confiscation order that has been made, the Court of First Instance may appoint a receiver in respect of realisable property, and order or empower the receiver to exercise the powers similar to those under section 17 of the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455) (with the necessary modifications).
- (2) The Court of First Instance, the Registrar of the High Court or the District Court (as the case may be) and the receiver have the powers, obligations and protection similar to those under sections 18, 19 and 24 of the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455) (with the necessary modifications).

12. Bankruptcy of defendant and winding up of company holding other realisable property

(1) Where—

- (a) a person who holds realisable property is adjudged bankrupt; or
- (b) realisable property is held by a company and an order for the winding up of the company has been made or a resolution has been passed by the company for voluntary winding up, the provisions under sections 21, 22 and 23 of the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455) apply with the necessary modifications.

(2) The references in those provisions to restraint order, charging order and confiscation order and relevant provisions are to be understood as references to restraint order, charging order and confiscation order and relevant provisions in this Schedule.

13. Forfeiture of offence related property

(1) After an application is made by the Secretary for Justice, the Court of First Instance may, if satisfied that any property specified in the application is offence related property—
(L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (a) mentioned in paragraph (a) of the definition of offence related property in section 1(1) of this Schedule and which also—
 - (i) in whole or in part directly or indirectly represents any proceeds arising from an offence endangering national security;

 - (iii) was used to finance or otherwise assist the commission of an offence endangering national security; or
- (b) mentioned in paragraph (b) of the definition of offence related property in section 1(1) of this Schedule, order, subject to subsection (2), the forfeiture of the property.
- (2) Where the Court of First Instance makes an order under subsection (1) in respect of any property, the Court of First Instance must specify in the order so much, if any, of the property in respect of which the Court of First Instance is not satisfied as mentioned in that subsection.
- (3) An order may be made under this section whether or not proceedings are instituted against any person for an offence with which the property concerned is connected.
- (4) The standard of proof on an application under this section is the standard of proof applicable to civil proceedings in a court of law.

13A. Forfeiture of convicted person's offence related property in serious cases

- (1) Without limiting section 13 of this Schedule, this section applies if a person (convicted person) is sentenced to life imprisonment or imprisonment for 10 years or more for having been convicted of any offence endangering national security.
- (2) If, after an application is made by the Secretary for Justice, the Court of First Instance is satisfied that—

- (a) the convicted person used any part of the convicted person's property to finance or otherwise assist the commission of the offence endangering national security of which the convicted person is convicted; or
- (b) there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the convicted person intends to use any part of the convicted person's property to finance or otherwise assist the commission of an offence endangering national security,
- the Court of First Instance must order the forfeiture of all the specified property of the convicted person.
- (3) However, even though the Court of First Instance is, after an application is made by the Secretary for Justice, satisfied of the matter mentioned in subsection (2)(a) or (b), if the convicted person produces evidence satisfying the Court of First Instance that the forfeiture of all the specified property of the convicted person would be plainly disproportionate to the aim of preventing the convicted person from using any part of the specified property to finance or otherwise assist the commission of an offence endangering national security, then subsection (2) does not apply and the Court of First Instance must order the forfeiture of the specified property of the convicted person to the extent that the Court of First Instance considers proportionate to achieving that aim.
- (4) The standard of proof on an application under this section is the standard of proof applicable to civil proceedings in a court of law.
- (5) To avoid doubt, this section applies to the convicted person even if—
- (a) the offence endangering national security of which the convicted person is convicted occurred before this section comes into operation*; or

- (2) The following person may, within 60 days beginning on the date of seizure of the article under subsection (1), make written representations to the Commissioner of Customs and Excise stating why the article should not be forfeited under this section—
- (a) the owner of the article;
 - (b) the authorized agent of the owner;
 - (c) a person who was in possession of the article at the time of the seizure; or
 - (d) a person who has a legal or equitable interest in the article.
- (3) The representations must—
- (a) contain the full name of the person who makes the representations; and
 - (b) specify an address in Hong Kong for the purposes of this section and section 13C of this Schedule and related matters.
- (4) The article must be forfeited immediately if, on the date of expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (2), no representations in respect of the article have been made in accordance with that subsection.
- (5) However, if the Commissioner of Customs and Excise is of the opinion that the article is of a perishable nature, the Commissioner of Customs and Excise may order that the article be destroyed, regardless of whether any representations are made within the period mentioned in subsection (2).

13C. Applications to magistrates for forfeiture of articles that have seditious intention

- (1) If a person (claimant) makes representations under section 13B(2) of this Schedule and the Commissioner of Customs and Excise, having regard to the representations, is still of the opinion that the article to which the representations relate should be forfeited under this section, the Commissioner of Customs and Excise may make an application to a magistrate for the forfeiture of the article.
- (2) After the application is made, a magistrate must—
 - (a) issue a summons to the claimant, requiring the claimant to appear before a magistrate on the hearing of the application; and
 - (b) cause a copy of the summons to be served on the Commissioner of Customs and Excise.

- (a) a person has published the message on an electronic platform; and (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (b) the publication is likely to constitute an offence endangering national security or is likely to cause the occurrence of an offence endangering national security.

7. Power to make requirements

- (1) If a person (publisher) has published an electronic message (subject message) on any electronic platform (affected platform) and a designated officer reasonably believes that the subject message is an electronic message specified under section 6 of this Schedule, the officer may exercise one or more of the powers under subsections (2), (3), (4) and (5) in respect of the subject message. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (1A) To avoid doubt, the designated officer may exercise those powers in respect of the subject message even if—
 - (a) the publisher is not the person referred to in section 6(a) of this Schedule; or
 - (b) the affected platform is not the electronic platform referred to in section 6(a) of this Schedule. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (2) The designated officer may require the publisher to remove the subject message from the affected platform before the deadline specified by the officer. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (3) The designated officer may require the platform service provider for the affected platform to take a disabling action on the subject message before the deadline specified by the officer.
- (4) The designated officer—

- (a) may notify a hosting service provider for the affected platform of any requirement issued under subsection (3) to the platform service provider; and
 - (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to issue a requirement to the platform service provider under subsection (3), or the platform service provider fails to comply with a requirement issued under that subsection—may require the hosting service provider to take a disabling action on the subject message before the deadline specified by the officer.
- (5) The designated officer—
 - (a) may notify a network service provider of—
 - (i) a requirement issued under subsection (3) to the platform service provider; and
 - (ii) a requirement issued under subsection (4) to a hosting service provider; and
 - (b) if—
 - (i) the platform service provider fails to comply with a requirement issued under subsection (3), and it is not reasonably practicable to issue a requirement to a hosting service provider under subsection (4);
 - (ii) a hosting service provider fails to comply with a requirement issued under subsection (4); or
 - (iii) it is not reasonably practicable to issue a requirement to the platform service provider under subsection (3) or to a hosting service provider under subsection (4), may require the network service provider to take a disabling action on the subject message before the deadline specified by the officer.

8. Requirement ceasing to have effect

A requirement issued by a designated officer to a person or service provider under section 7 of this Schedule ceases to have effect if the designated officer notifies the person or service provider that another person has removed the electronic message from the electronic platform, or has taken a disabling action on the message.

Part 3

Requirements to Provide Identification Record or Decryption Assistance for Electronic Message

9. Power to make requirements

- (1) A magistrate may issue a warrant authorizing a police officer to exercise the power specified in subsection (3) if the magistrate is satisfied by information on oath that—
 - (a) there is reasonable ground for suspecting that—
 - (i) a person has published an electronic message on an electronic platform;
 - (ii) the publication is likely to constitute an offence endangering national security or is likely to cause the occurrence of an offence endangering national security; and
 - (iii) a service provider has in its possession, custody or control an identification record for the message, or

- may provide decryption assistance in respect of the message; and
- (b) it is necessary to obtain the record or assistance from the service provider for the investigation, containment or prevention of the offence.
- (2) However, a specified police officer or a police officer authorized by the specified police officer may exercise the power specified in subsection (3) without warrant if the specified police officer is satisfied that—
- (a) there is reasonable ground for suspecting that—
- (i) a person has published an electronic message on an electronic platform;
- (ii) the publication is likely to constitute an offence endangering national security or is likely to cause the occurrence of an offence endangering national security; and
- (iii) a service provider has in its possession, custody or control an identification record for the message, or may provide decryption assistance in respect of the message;
- (b) it is necessary to obtain the record or assistance from the service provider for the investigation, containment or prevention of the offence; and
- (c) a delay caused by an application for a warrant under subsection (1) is likely to defeat the purpose of obtaining the record or assistance, or for any reason it is not reasonably practicable to make the application.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) or (2), the police officer may require the service provider to provide the identification record or decryption assistance (as the case requires).

- (4) For the purposes of this section, an identification record for an electronic message published on an electronic platform is a record containing information about the identity of the person who has published the message on the platform.

Part 4

Non-compliance

10. Non-compliance of person publishing electronic message

- (1) If a person fails to comply with a requirement issued under section 7(2) of this Schedule, the person commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $100,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.
- (2) It is a defence for a person charged under subsection (1) to show that the person had a specified excuse for the failure to comply with the requirement.
- (3) A defendant is to be taken to have shown that the defendant had a specified excuse for the failure if—
- (a) sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue that the defendant had such an excuse; and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved by the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person had a specified excuse for a failure to comply with a requirement if it was not reasonable to expect the person to comply with the requirement because the technology necessary to comply with the requirement was not reasonably available to the person.

11. Power to remove messages from platform

Section 12

Instrument A303

If a magistrate is satisfied by information on oath that—

- (a) a person fails to comply with a requirement issued under section 7(2) of this Schedule to remove an electronic message from an electronic platform; and
- (b) it is necessary to remove the message from the platform to safeguard national security, the magistrate may issue a warrant authorizing a police officer to seize an electronic device of the person, and to take any reasonably necessary action on the device, for removing the message from the platform.

12. Non-compliance of service provider

- (1) If a service provider fails to comply with a requirement issued under section 7 or 9(3) of this Schedule, the service provider commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $100,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months.
- (2) It is a defence for a service provider charged under subsection (1) for a failure to comply with a requirement issued under section 7 of this Schedule to show that the service provider had a specified excuse for the failure.
- (3) A defendant is to be taken to have shown that the defendant had a specified excuse for the failure to comply with a requirement issued under section 7 of this Schedule if—
 - (a) sufficient evidence is adduced to raise an issue that the defendant had such an excuse; and
 - (b) the contrary is not proved by the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a service provider had a specified excuse for a failure to comply with a requirement if it was not reasonable to expect the service provider to comply with the requirement because—

- (a) the technology necessary for complying with the requirement was not reasonably available to the service provider; or
- (b) there was a risk of incurring substantial loss to, or otherwise substantially prejudicing the right of, a third party.

Part 5

Miscellaneous

13. Designated officer

The Secretary for Security may appoint a public officer as a designated officer for the purposes of this Schedule.

14. Extra-territorial application

- (1) A power is exercisable under section 7(2) of this Schedule regardless of whether or not the electronic message is posted within or outside Hong Kong on the electronic platform.
- (2) A power is exercisable under section 7(3) of this Schedule regardless of whether or not the intermediary service is provided within or outside Hong Kong.
- (3) A power is exercisable under section 7(4)(b) of this Schedule regardless of whether or not the hosting service is provided within or outside Hong Kong.
- (4) A power is exercisable under section 7(5)(b) of this Schedule in relation to a network service provider of an internet service or specified network service (within the meaning of section

- (5) A power is exercisable under section 9(3) of this Schedule regardless of whether or not the identification record or decryption key is located within or outside Hong Kong.

15. Requirement etc. in writing

- (1) A requirement or notification under this Schedule must be in writing.
- (2) For the purposes of this Schedule, a requirement or notification is issued to a person if—
- (a) it is sent to the person at an address (including an email address and fax number) provided by the person for receiving correspondences; or
 - (b) where no such address is provided by the person, it is sent by an electronic message to the person.

16. Immunity from civil liability

A service provider who complies with a requirement issued under section 7 of this Schedule does not incur any civil liability, whether arising in contract, tort, equity or otherwise, to any person by reason only of that compliance.

- (2) A Court must have regard to the representations of the Commissioner of Police before making an order mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) A Court may make any order, and adopt any procedure, that is necessary to prevent the disclosure of the information in the proceedings.
- (4) In this section—
Court (法院) has the meaning given by section 3(1) of the Safeguarding National Security Ordinance (6 of 2024).

6. Limitations on use of incriminating information etc. as evidence in proceedings

- (1) If the Commissioner of Police serves a notice under section 2 or 3 of this Schedule, the Commissioner must ensure that any organization or person that is required to comply with a requirement in the notice has first been informed or reminded of the effect of subsection (2).
- (2) Despite any other provision of these Implementation Rules, if—
 - (a) an organization or person provides the Commissioner of Police with any information, or (if applicable) answers any question from a police officer or provides a police officer with any information, for compliance with a requirement in a notice served under section 2 or 3 of this Schedule;
 - (b) the information or answer might tend to incriminate the organization or person; and
 - (c) the organization or person claims, before so providing the information or answer, that the information or

In this Part—

Court (法庭) means the Court of First Instance of the High Court;

noticed party (受通知方), in relation to a regulation notice, means—

- (a) if the notice is served under section 2 of this Schedule—an organization that is served with the notice (including an office-bearer of the organization, or a person managing or assisting in the management of the organization, who is served with the notice); or
- (b) if the notice is served under section 3 of this Schedule—
 - (i) an individual who is served with the notice; or
 - (ii) an organization that is served with the notice (including an office-bearer of the organization, or a person managing or assisting in the management of the organization, who is served with the notice);

regulation notice (規管通知) means a notice served under section 2 or 3 of this Schedule.

8. Making of applications

(1) If—

- (a) a person or organization is a noticed party of a regulation notice; or
- (b) the Court is satisfied that a person or organization, although not a noticed party of the notice, is affected by the notice, the person or organization may, in accordance with subsections (2), (3) and (4), apply to the Court for the revocation or variation of the notice.

Section 8

Instrument A303

- (2) The application must be made by originating summons (in Form No. 10 in Appendix A to the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A)) and be supported by affidavit.
- (3) The originating summons and affidavit must state the grounds on which the applicant seeks the revocation or variation of the notice.
- (4) The applicant must, within 14 days after the date of service of the notice on the noticed party—
 - (a) file the originating summons and affidavit with the Court; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the originating summons and affidavit on the Commissioner of Police.
- (5) The Commissioner of Police must, within 14 days after the date of receipt of the copy of the originating summons and affidavit, adduce affidavit evidence stating the Commissioner's justifications for opposing the application and—
 - (a) to the extent that the affidavit evidence involves any confidential information—file the affidavit evidence with the Court; or
 - (b) to the extent that the affidavit evidence does not involve any confidential information—
 - (i) file the affidavit evidence with the Court; and
 - (ii) serve a copy of the affidavit evidence on the applicant.
- (6) In this section—

confidential information (保密資料) means any information that is disallowed from being disclosed in any civil or criminal proceedings under section 5(1) of this Schedule.

9. Hearing of applications

Unless the Court considers that hearing an application mentioned in section 8 of this Schedule in open court is necessary in the interests of justice and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, the application must be heard in a closed court.

10. Determination of applications

- (1) This section applies if an application mentioned in section 8 of this Schedule is made.
- (2) If the application is for revocation of a regulation notice and the Court is satisfied that the Commissioner of Police had reasonable grounds to believe the following matters at the time of issue of the requirement concerned and still has reasonable grounds to believe the following matters at the time of determination of the application, then the Court must not grant the application—
 - (a) the noticed party—
 - (i) if the notice is served under section 2 of this Schedule—
 - (A) has carried on any activity in Hong Kong (including having carried on any activity in Hong Kong through any other person); and
 - (B) is an external political organization; or
 - (ii) if the notice is served under section 3 of this Schedule—is an agent of an external force (other than a diplomatic agent, a consular officer, or an employee of a consular post, who is entitled to privileges and immunities in Hong Kong in accordance with the law of Hong Kong, or any other person or organization that is entitled to privileges and immunities in Hong Kong in accordance with the law of Hong Kong); and

- (b) it is necessary to issue the requirement for the prevention and investigation of an offence endangering national security.
- (3) If the application is for variation of a regulation notice, the Court must not grant the application unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to do so.
- (4) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Court—
 - (a) may confirm, vary or revoke the regulation notice; and
 - (b) may, in relation to relevant matters, make any other order that the Court considers just.

11. Effect of pending applications on effect of regulation notices

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), even if a person or organization makes an application under section 8 of this Schedule (relevant application), the relevant application does not affect the effect of the regulation notice concerned.
- (2) If the applicant of the relevant application is a noticed party of the regulation notice concerned, the applicant is taken as having complied with the notice for the purposes of Part 2 of this Schedule as long as the applicant, before the application is determined—
 - (a) if the notice requires the applicant to provide certain information before the specified deadline—files, before the deadline, the information with the Court in a way in which the information is sealed; or

- (b) if the notice requires the applicant to provide certain information at the specified intervals within the specified period—files, at those intervals within the period, the information with the Court in a way in which the information is sealed.
- (3) If the Court refuses the relevant application, any information filed with the Court for compliance with the notice pursuant to subsection (2) may be unsealed and be provided to the Commissioner of Police.

12. Rules of court

The Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A) apply to proceedings conducted under this Part to the extent that those Rules are not inconsistent with this Part.

Schedule 6

[r. 2]

Rules on Application for Authorization to Conduct Interception and Covert Surveillance

Part 1

Basic Principles

1. Interpretation

Part 6 of this Schedule contains interpretation provisions of this Schedule.

2. Conditions

- (1) The conditions for the issue, confirmation or renewal of a prescribed authorization, or the continuance of a prescribed authorization or a part of a prescribed authorization, to conduct interception or covert surveillance are that in the relevant case—
 - (a) the purpose sought to be furthered by conducting the interception or covert surveillance (purpose sought) is that of—
 - (i) preventing or detecting offences endangering national security; or
 - (ii) protecting national security;
 - (b) there is reasonable suspicion that any person has been, is, or is likely to be, involved in—

Region

Schedule 6—Part 1

S6-4

Section 2

Instrument A303

- (i) (in the case of paragraph (a)(i)) the relevant offences endangering national security to be prevented or detected; or
- (ii) (in the case of paragraph (a)(ii)) any activity which constitutes or would constitute the relevant threat to national security; and
- (c) the interception or covert surveillance is necessary for, and proportionate to, the purpose sought, on considering—
 - (i) the balance between the relevant factors and the intrusiveness of the interception or covert surveillance on any person who is to be the subject of or may be affected by the interception or covert surveillance;
 - (ii) whether the purpose sought can reasonably be furthered by other less intrusive means; and
 - (iii) such other matters that are relevant in the circumstances.

(2) In this section—

relevant factors (有關因素) means—

- (a) the following factors—
 - (i) in the case of subsection (1)(a)(i)—the immediacy and gravity of the relevant offences endangering national security to be prevented or detected; or
 - (ii) in the case of subsection (1)(a)(ii)—the immediacy and gravity of the relevant threat to national security; and

- (b) the likely value and relevance, in relation to the purpose sought, of the information likely to be obtained by conducting the interception or covert surveillance.

3. Who can apply for prescribed authorizations

A person who applies for a prescribed authorization under this Schedule must be an officer of the Police Force who is responsible for the enforcement of the Law of the People's Republic of China on Safeguarding National Security in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

Part 2

Prescribed Authorizations and Safeguards

Division 1—Chief Executive's Authorization

4. Authorization for interception or covert surveillance

- (1) An officer of the Police Force may, with the approval of a directorate officer, make an application to the Chief Executive in writing, supported by a written statement by the applicant (which is to comply with the requirements specified in Division 1 or 2 of Part 4 of this Schedule as may be applicable), for an authorization for interception, Type 1 surveillance or Type 2 surveillance to be conducted.
- (2) The Chief Executive may, on considering whether the application has met the conditions under section 2 of this Schedule—
 - (a) (if satisfied that the conditions have been met) issue in writing the authorization sought under the application, with or without variations; or

- (b) refuse to issue the authorization, giving the reason for the refusal in writing.
- (3) When issuing the authorization, the Chief Executive must specify the duration (which in any case is not to begin at a time earlier than the time when the authorization is issued). Subject to any renewal under section 6 of this Schedule, the authorization ceases to have effect on the expiry of the duration (which is not to be longer than the period of 6 months beginning with the time when the authorization takes effect).

5. Authorization for Type 2 surveillance

- (1) The Chief Executive may designate a directorate officer to be an authorizing officer for Type 2 surveillance.
- (2) An officer of the Police Force may make an application to an authorizing officer in writing, supported by a written statement by the applicant (which is to comply with the requirements specified in Division 2 of Part 4 of this Schedule), for an authorization for Type 2 surveillance to be conducted.
- (3) The authorizing officer may, on considering whether the application has met the conditions under section 2 of this Schedule—
 - (a) (if satisfied that the conditions have been met) issue in writing the authorization sought under the application, with or without variations; or
 - (b) refuse to issue the authorization, giving the reason for the refusal in writing.
- (4) When issuing the authorization, the authorizing officer must specify the duration (which in any case is not to begin at a time earlier than the time when the authorization is issued).

Subject to any renewal under section 7 of this Schedule, the authorization ceases to have effect on the expiry of the duration (which is not to be longer than the period of 6 months beginning with the time when the authorization takes effect).

6. Renewal of authorization for interception or covert surveillance

- (1) At any time before an authorization for interception, Type 1 surveillance or Type 2 surveillance ceases to have effect, an officer of the Police Force may, with the approval of a directorate officer, make an application to the Chief Executive in writing, supported by a written statement by the applicant (which is to comply with the requirements specified in Division 3 of Part 4 of this Schedule), for a renewal of the authorization.
- (2) The Chief Executive may, on considering whether the application has met the conditions under section 2 of this Schedule, and without limiting the foregoing, taking into consideration the duration for which the authorization has had effect since its first issue—
 - (a) (if satisfied that the conditions have been met) grant in writing the renewal sought under the application, with or without variations; or
 - (b) refuse to grant the renewal, giving the reason for the refusal in writing.
- (3) An authorization for interception, Type 1 surveillance or Type 2 surveillance may be renewed more than once under this Schedule.
- (4) A renewal of an authorization for interception, Type 1 surveillance or Type 2 surveillance, subject to any further renewal under this section, ceases to have effect on the expiry of the duration specified by the Chief Executive when granting the renewal, which duration is not to be longer than the period of 6 months beginning with the time when the renewal takes effect.

7. Renewal of authorization for Type 2 surveillance

- (1) At any time before an authorization for Type 2 surveillance ceases to have effect, an officer of the Police Force may make an application to an authorizing officer in writing, supported by a written statement by the applicant (which is to comply with the requirements specified in Division 3 of Part 4 of this Schedule), for a renewal of the authorization.
- (2) The authorizing officer may, on considering whether the application has met the conditions under section 2 of this Schedule, and without limiting the foregoing, taking into consideration the duration for which the authorization has had effect since its first issue—
 - (a) (if satisfied that the conditions have been met) grant in writing the renewal sought under the application, with or without variations; or
 - (b) refuse to grant the renewal, giving the reason for the refusal in writing.
- (3) An authorization for Type 2 surveillance may be renewed more than once under this Schedule.
- (4) A renewal of an authorization for Type 2 surveillance, subject to any further renewal under this section, ceases to have effect on the expiry of the duration specified by the authorizing officer when granting the renewal, which duration is not to be longer than the period of 6 months beginning with the time when the renewal takes effect.

8. Matters authorized or required by Chief Executive's authorizations

- (1) A Chief Executive's authorization for interception may—
 - (a) in the case of a postal interception, contain terms that authorize one or both of the following—
 - (i) the interception of communications made to or from any premises or address specified in the authorization;
 - (ii) the interception of communications made to or by any person specified in the authorization (whether by name or by description); or
 - (b) in the case of a telecommunications interception, contain terms that authorize one or both of the following—
 - (i) the interception of communications made to or from telecommunications service specified in the authorization;
 - (ii) the interception of communications made to or from telecommunications service that any person specified in the authorization (whether by name or by description) is using, or is reasonably expected to use.
- (2) A Chief Executive's authorization for covert surveillance may contain terms that authorize one or more of the following—
 - (a) the use of surveillance devices in or on the premises specified in the authorization;
 - (b) the use of surveillance devices in or on objects, or classes of objects, specified in the authorization;

interception or Type 1 surveillance to be conducted, if the officer considers that—

- (a) there is immediate need for the interception or Type 1 surveillance to be conducted by reason of an imminent risk of—
 - (i) death or serious bodily harm of any person;
 - (ii) substantial damage to property;
 - (iii) serious threat to national security; or
 - (iv) loss of vital evidence; and
 - (b) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it is not reasonably practicable to apply in writing for the issue of a Chief Executive's authorization under section 4 of this Schedule.
- (2) The Commissioner of Police may, on considering whether subsection (1)(a) and (b) applies, and whether the application has met the conditions under section 2 of this Schedule—
- (a) (if satisfied that the subsection is applicable and the conditions have been met) issue the emergency authorization sought under the application, with or without variations; or
 - (b) refuse to issue the emergency authorization.
- (3) When issuing the emergency authorization, the Commissioner of Police must specify the duration (which in any case is not to begin at a time earlier than the time when the authorization is issued). The authorization ceases to have effect on the expiry of the duration (which is not to be longer than the period of 48 hours beginning with the time when the authorization is issued).

- (4) An emergency authorization may not be renewed under this Schedule.

10. Confirmation of emergency authorization

- (1) Where an interception or Type 1 surveillance is conducted pursuant to an emergency authorization, the Commissioner of Police must cause an officer of the Police Force to make an application to the Chief Executive in writing, supported by a written statement by the applicant, for confirmation of the authorization, as soon as reasonably practicable after, and in any event within the period of 48 hours beginning with, the time when the authorization is issued.
- (2) In default of any application being made for confirmation of the emergency authorization within the period of 48 hours referred to in subsection (1), the Commissioner of Police must cause the immediate destruction of any information obtained by conducting the interception or Type 1 surveillance concerned.
- (3) If there is an application under subsection (1), the Chief Executive may, on considering whether the application has met the conditions under section 2 of this Schedule—
- (a) (if satisfied that the conditions have been met) confirm the emergency authorization in writing, with or without variations or new conditions; or
- (b) refuse to confirm the emergency authorization, giving the reason for the refusal in writing.
- (4) Where the Chief Executive specifies variations or new conditions under subsection (3)(a), the emergency authorization is only to have effect subject to the variations, and any new conditions, specified by the Chief Executive, from the time of the determination.

- (5) Where the Chief Executive refuses to confirm the emergency authorization under subsection (3)(b), the emergency authorization is, despite any other provision of this Schedule, to be revoked on the making of the determination. The Chief Executive may order the Commissioner of Police to cause the immediate destruction of any information obtained by conducting the interception or Type 1 surveillance concerned.

11. Matters authorized or required by emergency authorizations

Section 8 of this Schedule applies to an emergency authorization, as if references to a Chief Executive's authorization for interception or Type 1 surveillance in that section were references to an emergency authorization.

Division 3—Other Provisions Related to Prescribed Authorizations

12. What prescribed authorization also authorizes

A prescribed authorization also authorizes the undertaking of a conduct, including the following conduct, that is necessary for and incidental to the carrying out of what is authorized or required to be carried out under the authorization—

- (a) the retrieval of devices authorized to be used under the authorization;
- (b) the installation, use, maintenance and retrieval of an enhancement equipment for the devices;
- (c) the temporary removal of any conveyance or object from any premises for the installation, maintenance or retrieval of the devices or enhancement equipment and the return of the conveyance or object to the premises;

- (d) the breaking open of anything for the installation, maintenance or retrieval of the devices or enhancement equipment;
- (e) the connection of the devices or enhancement equipment to a source of electricity and the use of electricity from that source to operate the devices or enhancement equipment;
- (f) the connection of the devices or enhancement equipment to an object or system that may be used to transmit information in any form and the use of that object or system in connection with the operation of the devices or enhancement equipment; and
- (g) the provision of assistance for the execution of the authorization.

13. What prescribed authorization may not authorize other than in exceptional circumstances

- (1) Unless exceptional circumstances exist—
 - (a) no prescribed authorization may authorize the interception of communications in a situation that involves—
 - (i) (in the case of a postal interception) an office or other relevant premises, or a residence, of a lawyer; or
 - (ii) (in the case of a telecommunications interception) a telecommunications service used at an office or other relevant premises, or a residence, of a lawyer, or a telecommunications service known or reasonably expected to be known by the applicant for the prescribed authorization to be ordinarily used by a lawyer for the purpose of providing legal advice to clients; and

- (b) no prescribed authorization may authorize covert surveillance to be conducted in respect of oral or written communications taking place at an office or other relevant premises, or a residence, of a lawyer.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), exceptional circumstances exist if the relevant authority is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe—
- (a) that—
 - (i) the lawyer concerned;
 - (ii) other lawyers practising with the lawyer concerned or other persons working in the office of the lawyer concerned; or
 - (iii) in the case of a residence of the lawyer, other persons residing in the residence, are parties to any activity which constitutes or would constitute an offence endangering national security or a threat to national security; or
 - (b) that any of the communications concerned is for the furtherance of a criminal purpose.
- (3) To avoid doubt, information that is subject to legal professional privilege is to remain privileged despite that it has been obtained pursuant to a prescribed authorization.
- (4) In this section—
- lawyer (律師) means a barrister, solicitor or foreign lawyer as defined by section 2(1) of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159) who practises as such, or any person holding an other relevant premises (其他有關處所), in relation to a lawyer, means any premises, other than an office of the lawyer, that are known or reasonably expected to be known by the applicant for the prescribed authorization to be ordinarily used by the lawyer and by other lawyers for the purpose of providing legal advice to clients (including any premises ordinarily used by lawyers for the purpose of providing legal advice to clients when in court or visiting a prison, police station or other place where any person is detained).

14. Issue of device retrieval warrants after prescribed authorizations having ceased to have effect

- (1) Where a prescribed authorization has in any way ceased to have effect under this Schedule, an officer of the Police Force may make an application to the Chief Executive in writing, supported by a written statement by the applicant (which is to comply with the requirements specified in Part 5 of this Schedule), for the issue of a device retrieval warrant authorizing the retrieval of the devices authorized to be used under the authorization if such devices—
 - (a) have been installed in or on any premises or object, pursuant to the authorization; and
 - (b) are still in or on such premises or object, or are in or on any other premises or object.
- (2) The Chief Executive may—
 - (a) issue in writing the device retrieval warrant sought under the application, with or without variations; or

- (b) refuse to issue the device retrieval warrant, giving the reason for the refusal in writing.
- (3) When issuing the device retrieval warrant, the Chief Executive must specify the duration (which in any case is not to begin at a time earlier than the time when the warrant is issued). The warrant ceases to have effect on the expiry of the duration (which is not to be longer than the period of 3 months beginning with the time when the warrant takes effect).
- (4) A device retrieval warrant may authorize the retrieval of a device specified in the warrant, and may contain terms that authorize the carrying out of one or both of the following—
 - (a) the doing of anything reasonably necessary to conceal a conduct authorized to be carried out under the warrant;
 - (b) if it is reasonably necessary for the execution of the warrant, the interference with properties (whether or not of any person who is the subject of the interception or covert surveillance concerned).
- (5) A device retrieval warrant also authorizes the undertaking of a conduct, including the following conduct, that is necessary for and incidental to the carrying out of what is authorized to be carried out under the warrant—
 - (a) the retrieval of an enhancement equipment for the devices authorized to be retrieved under the warrant;
 - (b) the entry, by the use of reasonable force if necessary, into or onto the premises where the devices or enhancement equipment is reasonably believed to be or likely to be, and other premises adjoining or providing access to the premises, in order to retrieve the devices or enhancement equipment;

- (c) the temporary removal of any conveyance or object from any premises for the retrieval of the devices or enhancement equipment and the return of the conveyance or object to the premises;
 - (d) the breaking open of anything for the retrieval of the devices or enhancement equipment; and
 - (e) the provision of assistance for the execution of the warrant.
- (6) A device retrieval warrant which authorizes the retrieval of tracking devices also authorizes the use of the devices and enhancement equipment for the devices solely for the purposes of the location and retrieval of the devices or enhancement equipment.
- (7) If, while a device retrieval warrant is in force but not yet completely executed, an officer of the Police Force who is for the time being in charge of the execution of the warrant—
 - (a) becomes aware that subsection (1)(a) or (b) does not apply to the devices or any of the devices specified in the warrant; or
 - (b) is of the opinion that the warrant or a part of the warrant cannot for whatever reason be executed,the officer must, as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware of the matter or forming the opinion, cause a report on the matter or opinion to be provided to the Chief Executive.

15. Prescribed authorizations and device retrieval warrants not affected by minor defects

- (1) A prescribed authorization or device retrieval warrant is not affected by any minor defect relating to it.

- (2) Information (including any protected product) obtained pursuant to a prescribed authorization is not by reason only of minor defect relating to the prescribed authorization to be rendered inadmissible in evidence in any proceedings before a court.

Division 4—Further Safeguards

16. Safeguards for protected products

- (1) Where any protected product has been obtained pursuant to a prescribed authorization, the Commissioner of Police must make arrangements to ensure—
- (a) that the following are limited to the minimum that is necessary for the relevant purpose of the authorization—
 - (i) the extent to which the protected product is disclosed;
 - (ii) the number of persons to whom any of the protected product is disclosed;
 - (iii) the extent to which the protected product is copied; and
 - (iv) the number of copies made of the protected product;
 - (b) that all practicable steps are taken to ensure that the protected product is protected against unauthorized or accidental access, processing, erasure or other use; and
 - (c) that the protected product is destroyed as soon as its retention is not necessary for the relevant purpose of the authorization.
- (2) Despite any other provision of this Schedule or other laws, if the Chief Executive believes that the provision or disclosure provision of this Schedule, comply with the provisions of the Operating Principles and Guidelines.

- (3) A failure on the part of any person to comply with any provision of the Operating Principles and Guidelines—
- (a) is for all purposes not of itself to be regarded as a failure to comply with any provision of this Schedule; and
 - (b) without prejudice to paragraph (a), does not affect the validity of any prescribed authorization or device retrieval warrant.

Editorial Note:

* Please see G.N. (E.) 74 of 2020 published in July 2020.

21. Immunity

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person does not incur civil or criminal liability by reason only of—
- (a) a conduct carried out pursuant to a prescribed authorization or device retrieval warrant, or an incidental conduct;
 - (b) the person's performance or purported performance in good faith of any function under this Schedule; or
 - (c) the person's compliance with a requirement made or purportedly made under this Schedule.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects liability that is or may be incurred by any person by reason only of—
- (a) entry into or onto any premises without permission; or
 - (b) interference with any property without permission.

22. Protected products obtained after revocation of prescribed authorization

- (1) If a prescribed authorization or a part of a prescribed authorization is revoked under section 18(3) of this Schedule, the Commissioner of Police must make arrangements to ensure that the interception or covert surveillance concerned or the relevant part of the interception or covert surveillance concerned is discontinued as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (2) Any protected product that is obtained after the prescribed authorization concerned or the relevant part of the prescribed authorization concerned is revoked and before the interception or covert surveillance concerned or the relevant part of the interception or covert surveillance concerned is discontinued in accordance with the arrangements made by the Commissioner of Police under subsection (1) is, for the purposes of this Schedule, to be regarded as having been obtained pursuant to a prescribed authorization.

Rules Relating to Requirement to Furnish Information and Produce Material

(L.N. 27 of 2026)

Part 1

Preliminary

(L.N. 27 of 2026)

1. Interpretation

In this Schedule—

authorized officer (獲授權人員) means—

- (a) any police officer; or
- (b) any person authorized in writing by the Secretary for Justice for the purposes of this Schedule; (L.N. 27 of 2026)

Court (法庭) means the Court of First Instance of the High Court.
(L.N. 27 of 2026)

Part 2

General Rules

(L.N. 27 of 2026)

2. Requirement to furnish information or produce material

- (1) The Secretary for Justice may, for the purpose of an investigation into an offence endangering national security, make an ex parte application to the Court for an order under subsection (2) in relation to a particular person or to persons of a particular description.
- (2) The Court may, if on such an application it is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (4)(a), (b) and (d) or subsection (4)(a), (c) and (d) are fulfilled, make an order complying with subsection (3) in respect of the particular person, or persons of the particular description, to whom the application relates.
- (3) An order under subsection (2) must—
 - (a) give particulars of the offence endangering national security that is under investigation;
 - (b) identify the particular person, or state the particular description of persons, in respect of whom the order is made;
 - (c) authorize the Secretary for Justice to require the person or persons in respect of whom the order is made to do either or both of the following—
 - (i) to answer questions from an authorized officer, or to furnish an authorized officer with information, with respect to any matter that reasonably appears to the authorized officer to be relevant to the investigation;
 - (ii) to produce to an authorized officer any material that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice to relate to any matter relevant to the investigation, or any material of a class that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice so to relate; and

- (d) contain such other terms (if any) as the Court considers appropriate in the public interest, but nothing in this paragraph is to be construed as authorizing the Court to order the detention of any person in custody without that person's consent.
- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) are—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the offence endangering national security under investigation has been committed;
 - (b) where the application relates to a particular person—that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has information, or is in possession of material, likely to be relevant to the investigation;
 - (c) where the application relates to persons of a particular description, that—
 - (i) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that some or all persons of that description have such information or are in possession of such material; and
 - (ii) the offence endangering national security could not effectively be investigated if the application was required to relate to a particular person, whether because of the urgency of the investigation, the need to keep the investigation confidential or the difficulty in identifying a particular person who has relevant information or material;
 - (d) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest that an order under subsection

- (2) should be made in respect of that person or those persons, having regard to—
- (i) the seriousness of the offence endangering national security under investigation;
 - (ii) whether or not the offence endangering national security could be effectively investigated if an order under subsection (2) is not made;
 - (iii) the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the information is disclosed or the material obtained; and
 - (iv) the circumstances under which the person or persons may have acquired, or may hold, the information or material (including any obligation of confidentiality in respect of the information or material and any family relationship with a person to whom the information or material relates).
- (5) Where an order under subsection (2) authorizes the Secretary for Justice to require a person to answer questions or furnish information with respect to any matter that reasonably appears to an authorized officer to be relevant to an investigation, the Secretary for Justice may by one, or more than one, notice in writing served on that person require that person to attend before an authorized officer at a specified time and place, or at specified times and places, and answer questions from the authorized officer, or furnish the authorized officer with information, with respect to any matter that reasonably appears to the authorized officer to be relevant to the investigation.
- (6) Where an order under subsection (2) authorizes the Secretary for Justice to require a person to produce any material that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice to relate to any matter relevant to an investigation, or any material of a class that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice so to relate, the Secretary for Justice may by one, or more than one, notice in writing served on that person require that person to, at a specified time and place, or at specified times and places, produce to an authorized officer any specified material that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice so to relate or any material of a specified class that reasonably appears to the Secretary for Justice so to relate.

- (7) A notice in writing imposing a requirement on a person under subsection (5) or (6) must—
- (a) state that an order has been made by the Court under this section and include— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (i) the date of the order;
 - (ii) the particulars of the offence endangering national security under investigation;
 - (iii) where the order is made in respect of that particular person, a statement to that effect;
 - (iv) where the order is made in respect of persons of a particular description and that person is of that particular description, a statement to that effect;
 - (v) a statement of the authorization given to the Secretary for Justice by the order; and
 - (vi) a statement of any other terms of the order relevant to that person;
 - (b) have annexed to it a copy of the order made under this section, but there may be excluded from such copy—case of an application by the Secretary for Justice, elsewhere.

(L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (2) Subject to subsection (5), the Court may, if on such an application it is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (4)(a), (c) and (d) or subsection (4)(b), (c) and (d) are fulfilled, make an order that the person who appears to the Court to be in possession or control of the material to which the application relates must— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (a) produce the material to an authorized officer for the officer to take away; or
 - (b) give an authorized officer access to it, within such period as the order may specify.
- (3) The period to be specified in an order under subsection (2) must be 7 days unless it appears to the Court that a longer or shorter period would be appropriate in the particular circumstances of the application. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) are—
 - (a) where the investigation is into an offence endangering national security, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the offence endangering national security has been committed;
 - (b) where the investigation is into a person's proceeds arising from an offence endangering national security—

- (i) that the person has committed an offence endangering national security, or that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has committed an offence endangering national security; and
 - (ii) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person has benefited from an offence endangering national security;
 - (c) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the material to which the application relates—
 - (i) is likely to be relevant to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made; and
 - (ii) does not consist of or include material subject to legal professional privilege; (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (d) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest that the material should be produced or that access to it should be given, having regard to—
 - (i) the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the material is obtained; and
 - (ii) the circumstances under which the person in possession or control of the material holds or controls it, as the case may be.
 - (5) Where an application under subsection (1) relates to material of a particular description, an order under subsection (2) may be made only where an application in relation to particular material is not reasonably practicable.
 - (6) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (2)(b) in relation to material on any premises, it may, on the same or a subsequent application of an authorized officer, order any person who appears to an authorized officer to be entitled to grant entry to the premises to allow an authorized officer to enter the premises to obtain access to the material. (L.N. 27 of 2026)

- (7) An application for the discharge or variation of an order made under subsection (2) or (6) may be made by any person who is subject to the order.
- (8) Where material to which an application under this section relates consists of information recorded otherwise than in legible form—
 - (a) an order under subsection (2)(a) is to have effect as an order to produce the material to an authorized officer in a form in which it can be taken away by the officer; and
 - (b) an order under subsection (2)(b) is to have effect as an order to give an authorized officer access to the material in a form in which it is visible and legible.
- (9) Where an order made under subsection (2)(a) relates to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, an authorized officer may, by notice in writing, require the person to produce the material in a form in which it is visible and legible and can be taken away, and may by like notice release the person from any obligation under the order to produce the material in the form in which it is recorded.
- (10) An order under subsection (2)—
 - (a) must not confer any right to production of, or access to, material subject to legal professional privilege; and (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (b) may be made in relation to material in the possession or control of any Government department or any body specified by the Chief Executive by notice in the Gazette.

- (11) A person is not excused from producing any material in relation to which an order under subsection (2) is made on the ground that to do so—
- (a) might tend to incriminate the person; or
 - (b) would breach— (L.N. 27 of 2026)
 - (i) an obligation as to secrecy; or
 - (ii) any other restriction on the disclosure of information or material,that is imposed by statute or otherwise. (L.N. 27 of 2026)
- (12) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to comply with an order made under subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $100,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.
- (13) An authorized officer may photograph or make copies of any material produced under this section.

4. Disclosure of information obtained under section 2 or 3 of this Schedule

- (1) Where any information subject to an obligation of secrecy under the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) has been obtained from the Commissioner of Inland Revenue or any officer of the Inland Revenue Department under or by virtue of section 2 or 3 of this Schedule, that information may be disclosed by any authorized officer to the Secretary for Justice for the purposes of—

- (a) any prosecution of an offence endangering national security;
 - (b) an application for a confiscation order under section 9 of Schedule 3 or an application for a forfeiture order under section 13 of Schedule 3; or
 - (c) an application for a restraint order or charging order under section 6 of Schedule 3, but may not otherwise be disclosed.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), information obtained by any person under or by virtue of section 2 or 3 of this Schedule may be disclosed by any authorized officer—
- (a) to the Department of Justice and the Hong Kong Police Force; and
 - (b) where the information appears to the Secretary for Justice to be likely to assist any corresponding person or body to discharge its functions—to that person or body.
- (3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to any other right to disclose information obtained under or by virtue of section 2 or 3 of this Schedule that may exist apart from subsection (2).
- (4) In this section—
- corresponding person or body (相應的人員或機構) means any person who or body which, in the opinion of the Secretary for Justice, has under the law of a place outside Hong Kong functions corresponding to any of the functions of any body mentioned in subsection (2)(a).

5. Offence of prejudicing investigation

- (1) Where an order under section 2 or 3 of this Schedule has been made or has been applied for and has not been refused, a person who, knowing or suspecting that the investigation in relation to which the order has been made or applied for is taking place—

- (a) without lawful authority or reasonable excuse makes any disclosure intending to prejudice the investigation or makes any disclosure being reckless as to whether the disclosure will prejudice the investigation; or
- (b) falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of, or causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of any material—
 - (i) knowing or suspecting that the material is likely to be relevant to the investigation; and
 - (ii) intending to conceal the facts disclosed by the material from persons carrying out the investigation, commits an offence.

- (2) Where a person has been arrested in connection with an investigation specified in subsection (1), that subsection does not apply as regards any disclosure in respect of the investigation made after such arrest.
- (3) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for 7 years.

6. Rules of court

For the rules of court applicable to any application made under this Part, reference may be made to the rules of court applicable to similar applications under the law of Hong Kong (in particular, the Rules of the High Court made under section 30 of the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance (Cap. 455)) with the necessary modifications.

Part 3

Claims of Legal Professional Privilege

(Part 3 added L.N. 27 of 2026)

7. Interpretation (Part 3)

In this Part—

claim information (聲請資料), in relation to an LPP claim, means any information set out under section 10(6) of this Schedule in respect of the claim;

claim material (聲請材料), in relation to an LPP claim, means any material specified under section 10(5)(a) of this Schedule in respect of the claim;

claimant (聲請人), in relation to an LPP claim, means the person who makes the claim;

LPP claim (法律專業保密權聲請) means a claim made to the Court that any information or material is (or any information and material are) subject to legal professional privilege;

respondent (答辯人), in relation to an LPP claim, means—

- (a) if the claim is made in consequence of any section 2 requirement—the Secretary for Justice; or
- (b) if the claim is made in consequence of any section 3 order—the person who makes the application concerned under section 3(1) of this Schedule;

section 2 requirement (第2條要求) means a requirement imposed under section 2 of this Schedule;

section 3 order (第3條命令) means an order made under section 3 of this Schedule.

8. Application of this Part etc.

- (1) An LPP claim in respect of one or more of the following is to be dealt with in accordance with this Part—
 - (a) any information required to be furnished for compliance with a section 2 requirement;
 - (b) any material required to be produced for compliance with a section 2 requirement;
 - (c) any material required to be produced, or any material to which access is required to be given to an authorized officer, for compliance with a section 3 order.
- (2) The Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A) apply to proceedings conducted under this Part to the extent that those Rules are not inconsistent with this Part.

9. Sealing of material etc.

- (1) If a person claims that any material required to be produced for compliance with a section 2 requirement is subject to legal professional privilege, the person must take the actions mentioned in subsection (3) no later than the time specified for the material by the Secretary for Justice under section 2(6) of this Schedule.
- (2) If a person claims that any material required to be produced, or any material to which access is required to be given to an authorized officer, for compliance with a section 3 order is subject to legal professional privilege, the person must take the actions mentioned in subsection (3) within the period specified in the order under section 3(2) of this Schedule.

(3) The actions are—

- (a) to provide, so far as is reasonably practicable, an authorized officer with the particulars of the material, including—
 - (i) the date, title, subject, author, recipient and purpose; and
 - (ii) in relation to any material that is stored in electronic equipment—the hash value, file name, file type and file path; and
- (b) to seal the material in the presence of an authorized officer and give it to the authorized officer.

10. LPP claims and related affidavit evidence and written submissions

- (1) The LPP claim concerned must be made by summons within 14 days after the specified date.
- (2) The reference in subsection (1) to the specified date is a reference to—
 - (a) if the claim is in respect of the information mentioned in section 8(1)(a) of this Schedule—the date on which the time specified for the information by the Secretary for Justice under section 2(5) of this Schedule falls;
 - (b) if the claim is in respect of the material mentioned in section 8(1)(b) of this Schedule—the date on which the time specified for the material by the Secretary for Justice under section 2(6) of this Schedule falls; or

- (c) if the claim is in respect of the material mentioned in section 8(1)(c) of this Schedule—the date of expiry of the period specified in the section 3 order concerned under section 3(2) of this Schedule.
 - (3) The claimant must, within the period mentioned in subsection (1)—
 - (a) file with the Court—
 - (i) the summons; and
 - (ii) affidavit evidence and written submissions in support of the claim; and
 - (b) serve on the respondent and (if the respondent is not the Secretary for Justice) the Secretary for Justice a copy of the documents mentioned in paragraph (a).
 - (4) The affidavit evidence must—
 - (a) state the nature of the claim information or claim material (as applicable);
 - (b) state whether the legal professional privilege that the claimant claims in respect of the claim information or claim material (as applicable) is legal advice privilege or litigation privilege; and
 - (c) state the reasons for which the claimant claims that the claim information or claim material (as applicable) is subject to legal professional privilege.
 - (5) Moreover, if the claim is in respect of the material mentioned in section 8(1)(b) or (c) of this Schedule, the affidavit evidence must also—
 - (a) specify which specific material is claimed to be subject to legal professional privilege; and

- (b) set out, so far as is reasonably practicable, the particulars of such material, including—
 - (i) the date, title, subject, author, recipient and purpose; and
 - (ii) in relation to any material that is stored in electronic equipment—the hash value, file name, file type and file path.
 - (6) Without affecting subsections (3), (4) and (5), if the claim is in respect of the information mentioned in section 8(1)(a) of this Schedule, the claimant must, within the period mentioned in subsection (1), set out the information in writing in another set of affidavit evidence, and seal the affidavit evidence, and file it with the Court afterwards.
 - (7) The respondent must, within 14 days after the date of service of the affidavit evidence and written submissions under subsection (3), file with the Court and serve on the claimant affidavit evidence and written submissions stating which claim information or claim material (as applicable) the respondent contends is not subject to legal professional privilege and the grounds of contention.
 - (8) The claimant may, within 7 days after the date of service of the affidavit evidence and written submissions under subsection (7), file with the Court and serve on the respondent further affidavit evidence and written submissions in reply to the affidavit evidence and written submissions served by the respondent under that subsection.
 - (9) The Court, if it considers appropriate—
 - (a) may inspect the claim material, or the affidavit evidence mentioned in subsection (6); and

- (b) may direct the respondent to inspect the claim material, or the affidavit evidence mentioned in subsection (6).
- (10) Despite subsection (1), (3), (6), (7) or (8)—
 - (a) the claimant and the respondent may agree to extend the period mentioned in that subsection; and
 - (b) the Court may, in accordance with section 11 of this Schedule and on application by the claimant or respondent, extend the period for one or more times.

11. Applications for extension of periods

- (1) An application made under section 10(10)(b) of this Schedule must be made by summons before the expiry of the period of which an extension is sought under the application.
- (2) The party that makes the application (applicant) must, at the time when the application is made—
 - (a) file with the Court—
 - (i) the summons; and
 - (ii) affidavit evidence and written submissions (if any) in support of the application; and
 - (b) serve on the other party (responding party) a copy of the documents mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (3) The responding party may, within 7 days after the date of service of the affidavit evidence and written submissions under subsection (2), file with the Court and serve on the applicant affidavit evidence and written submissions (if any) stating the grounds on which the responding party opposes the application.

Instrument A303

- (4) The Court must determine the application without an oral hearing unless the Court considers it necessary to conduct an oral hearing of the application.
- (5) The Court must not grant the application unless it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to do so.

12. Court's determination of disputes

- (1) The Court must determine the LPP claim concerned without an oral hearing unless the Court considers it necessary to conduct an oral hearing of the claim.
- (2) If the Court determines under subsection (1) that the whole of particular claim information or claim material is not subject to legal professional privilege, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may—
 - (a) for claim information—obtain and inspect the affidavit evidence mentioned in section 10(6) of this Schedule that relates to the LPP claim; or
 - (b) for claim material—unseal the material, whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
- (3) If the Court determines under subsection (1) that any part of particular claim information or claim material is not subject to legal professional privilege, section 15 of this Schedule applies to the information or material.

13. Claims treated as withdrawn on non-compliance with requirements

- (1) If a person claims that any material mentioned in section

- 9(1) or (2) of this Schedule is subject to legal professional privilege and has sealed the material under section 9(3)(b) of this Schedule, but the person fails to comply with a requirement in section 10(1) of this Schedule, then the respondent or a representative of the respondent may unseal the material, whether in the presence or absence of the person or a representative of the person.
- (2) If the claimant fails to comply with a requirement in section 10(3) of this Schedule—
- (a) the LPP claim concerned is to be treated as withdrawn; and
 - (b) accordingly, the respondent or a representative of the respondent may—
 - (i) unseal the material sealed under section 9(3)(b) of this Schedule that relates to the claim (if any); or
 - (ii) inspect the affidavit evidence mentioned in section 10(6) of this Schedule that relates to the claim (if any),whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
- (3) If the claimant fails to comply with a requirement in section 10(6) of this Schedule in respect of any information, the LPP claim concerned is to be treated as withdrawn to the extent that it relates to the information.
- (4) If the LPP claim concerned is treated as withdrawn under subsection (2) or (3), the respondent must give the claimant and file with the Court a written notice stating this fact.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, if the requirement mentioned in subsection (1), (2) or (3) is modified by section 10(10) of this Schedule, the reference in that subsection to that requirement is to be understood as a reference to that requirement as so modified.

14. Applications for restoration of claims that are treated as withdrawn

- (1) If the LPP claim concerned is treated as withdrawn (or withdrawn to a certain extent) under section 13 of this Schedule, the claimant may apply to the Court for restoration of the claim (or restoration of the claim to that extent) (restoration application).
- (2) A restoration application must be made by summons and be supported by affidavit.
- (3) The Court must not grant a restoration application unless it is satisfied that—
 - (a) the claimant has exercised due diligence to comply with the requirement that the claimant has failed to comply with as mentioned in section 13 of this Schedule;
 - (b) the claimant has failed to comply with the requirement for reasons beyond the control of the claimant; and
 - (c) in all the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable and necessary, and would not be contrary to the interests of national security, to grant the application.
- (4) If the Court grants a restoration application under subsection (3), it must give directions to make necessary modifications to the requirements in this Part in respect of the LPP claim.
- (5) The Court must be satisfied that a direction given under subsection (4) is reasonable and necessary and would not be contrary to the interests of national security.

15. Procedures for lifting restrictions on part of information or of

- (1) For the purposes of section 12(3) of this Schedule, the respondent must give the claimant a written notice specifying for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) one or more places (that place or each of those places being a specified place); and
 - (b) one or more dates (that date or each of those dates being a specified date) and one or more periods (that period or each of those periods being a specified period).
- (2) Unless the claimant and the respondent agree otherwise, the notice must be given not less than 3 days before a specified date.
- (3) The respondent or a representative of the respondent may, at a specified place and during a specified period on a specified date—
 - (a) for claim information—inspect the affidavit evidence mentioned in section 10(6) of this Schedule that relates to the LPP claim concerned to extract from it or to copy the part of the information concerned that is, as mentioned in section 12(3) of this Schedule, determined to be not subject to legal professional privilege; or
 - (b) for claim material—unseal the claim material concerned to extract from it or to copy the part of it that is, as mentioned in section 12(3) of this Schedule, determined to be not subject to legal professional privilege,whether in the presence or absence of the claimant or a representative of the claimant.
